Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Friday 03 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Mostly dry on Saturday, quite cloudy, some sunshine in places,.

This Evening and Tonight:
Some evening sunshine in parts of the west and far north otherwise mainly cloudy, and in the east there could be a little light drizzle at times. Light winds.

Saturday:
Mostly dry although with a lot of cloud around, thick enough for patchy drizzle in east at first. Some sunshine in places, most likely near west coast, and north mainland.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Dry for most of Sunday, rain reaching west coast spreading east in evening. Monday mainly cloudy, damp in west, sunnier in northeast. Tuesday mostly sunny, very warm, far north cloudier.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.